DECISION-MAKING BY THE MEMBERS

Members' meetings

- 41 The board must arrange a meeting of members (an annual general meeting or "AGM") in each calendar year.
- 42 The gap between one AGM and the next must not be longer than 15 months.
- 43 Notwithstanding clause 39, an AGM does not need to be held during the calendar year in which the organisation is formed; but the first AGM must still be held within 15 months of the date on which the organisation is formed.
- 44 The business of each AGM must include:-
- a. a report by the chair on the activities of the organisation;
 - b. consideration of the annual accounts of the organisation;
 - c. the election/re-election of charity trustees, as referred to in clauses 72 to 75.
- 45 The board may arrange a special members' meeting at any time.

Power to request the board to arrange a special members' meeting

- a. the notice states the purposes for which the meeting is to be held; and
 - b. those purposes are not inconsistent with the terms of this constitution, the Charities and Trustee (Investment) Scotland Act 2005 or any other statutory provision.
- 47 If the board receive a notice under clause Error! Reference source not found.3, the date for the meeting which they arrange in

 - b. in the case of any other resolution falling within clause 46 (requirement for two-thirds majority) must set out the exact terms of the resolution.
- 50 The reference to "clear days" in clause 35 shall be taken to mean that, in calculating the period of notice,
- a. the day after the notices are posted (or sent by e-mail) should be excluded; and
 - b. the day of the meeting itself should also be excluded.
- 51 Notice of every members' meeting must be given to all the members of the organisation, and to all the charity trustees; but the accidental omission to give notice to one or more members will not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.
- 52 Any notice which requires to be given to a member under this constitution must be: -
- a. sent by post to the member, at the address last notified by them to the organisation; or
 - b. sent by e-mail to the member, at the e-mail address last notified by them to the organisation.

- 55 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which a members' meeting was due to start - or if a quorum ceases to be present during a members' meeting - the meeting cannot proceed; and fresh notices of meeting will require to be sent out, to deal with the business (or remaining business) which was intended to be conducted.

- 56 The chair of the organisation should act as chairperson of each members' meeting.
- 57 If the chair of the organisation is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to start (or is not willing to act as chairperson), the charity trustees present at the meeting must elect (from among themselves) the person who will act as chairperson of that meeting.

Voting at members' meetings

- 58 Every member has one vote, which must be given personally at members meeting.
- 59 All decisions at members' meetings will be made by majority vote, in the event of a tie the chair will have the casting vote - with the exception of the types of resolution listed in clause 47.

 - f. a resolution for the winding up or dissolution of the organisation.
- 61 If there is an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting will be entitled to a second (casting) vote.

- 62 A resolution put to the vote at a members' meeting will be decided on a show of hands - unless the chairperson (or at least two other members present at the meeting) ask for a secret ballot.
- 63 The chairperson will decide how any secret ballot is to be conducted, and they will declare the result of the ballot at the meeting.

Written resolutions by members

- 64 A resolution agreed to in writing (or by e-mail) by all the members will be as valid as if it had been passed at a members' meeting; the date of the resolution will be taken to be the date on which the last member agreed to it.

Minutes

- 65 The board must ensure that proper minutes are kept in relation to all members' meetings.
- 66 Minutes of members' meetings must include the names of those present; and (so far as possible) should be signed by the chairperson of the meeting.
- 67 [The board shall make available copies of the minutes referred to in clause 52 to any member of the public requesting them; but on the basis that the board may exclude confidential material to the extent permitted under clause 101.]

BOARD

 - i. they are removed from office by a resolution of the members passed at a members' meeting.
- 81 A resolution under paragraph Error! Reference source not found., Error! Reference source not found. or Error! Reference source not found. shall be valid only if: -

- b. the charity trustee concerned is given the opportunity to address the meeting at which the resolution is proposed, prior to the resolution being put to the vote; and
- c. (in the case of a resolution under paragraph Error! Reference source not found. or Error! Reference source not found.) at least two thirds (to the nearest round number) of the charity trustees then in office vote in favour of the resolution.

Register of charity trustees

- 82 The board must keep a register of charity trustees, setting out
- a. for each current charity trustee:
 - i. their full name and address;
 - ii. the date on which they were appointed as a charity trustee; and
 - iii. any office held by them in the organisation;
 - b. for each former charity trustee - for at least 6 years from the date on which they ceased to be a charity trustee:
 - i. the name of the charity trustee;

- 83 The board must ensure that the register of charity trustees is updated within 28 days of any change:
- a. which arises from a resolution of the board or a resolution passed by the members of the organisation; or
 - b. which is notified to the organisation.
- 84 If any person requests a copy of the register of charity trustees, the board must ensure that a copy is supplied to them within 28 days, providing the request is reasonable; if the request is made by a person who is not a charity trustee of the organisation, the board may provide a copy which has the addresses blanked out - if the SCIO is satisfied that including that information is likely to jeopardise the safety or security of any person or premises.

Office-bearers

- 85 The charity trustees must elect (from among themselves) a chair, vice chair, a treasurer and a secretary.
- 86 In addition to the office-bearers required under clause 72, the charity trustees may elect (from among themselves) further office-bearers if they consider that appropriate.
- 87 All of the office-bearers will cease to hold office at the conclusion of each AGM, but may then be re-elected under clause 72 or 73.
- 88 A person elected to any office will automatically cease to hold that office: -
- a. if they cease to be a charity trustee; or

- 90 A meeting of the board at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the board.
- 91 The members may, by way of a resolution passed in compliance with clause 47 (requirement for two-thirds majority), direct the board to take any particular step or direct the board not to take any particular step; and the board shall give effect to any such direction accordingly.

Charity trustees - general duties

- 92 Each of the charity trustees has a duty, in exercising functions as a charity trustee, to act in the interests of the organisation; and, in particular, must:-
- a. seek, in good faith, to ensure that the organisation acts in a manner which is in accordance with its purposes;
 - b. act with the care and diligence which it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person;
 - c. in circumstances giving rise to the possibility of a conflict of interest between the organisation and any other party:
 - i. put the interests of the organisation before that of the other party;
 - ii. where any other duty prevents them from doing so, disclose the conflicting interest to the organisation and refrain from participating in any deliberation or decision of the other charity trustees with regard to the matter in question;

- d. ensure that the organisation complies with any direction, requirement, notice or duty imposed under or by virtue of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.

93 In addition to the duties outlined in clause 79, all of the charity trustees must take such steps as are reasonably practicable for the purpose of ensuring: -

- a. that any breach of any of those duties by a charity trustee is corrected by the charity trustee concerned and not repeated; and
- b. that any trustee who has been in serious and persistent breach of those duties is removed as a trustee.

94 Provided they have declared their interest - and have not voted on the question of whether or not the organisation should enter into the arrangement - a charity trustee will not be debarred from entering into an arrangement with the organisation in which they have a personal interest; and (subject to clause 82 and to the provisions relating to remuneration for services contained in the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005), they may retain any personal benefit which arises from that arrangement.

95 No charity trustee may serve as an employee (full time or part time) of the organisation; and no charity trustee may be given any remuneration by the organisation for carrying out their duties as a charity trustee.

96 The charity trustees may be paid all travelling and other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with carrying out their duties; this may include expenses relating to their attendance at meetings.

Code of conduct for charity trustees

97 Each of the charity trustees shall comply with the code of conduct (incorporating detailed rules on conflict of interest) prescribed by the board from time to time.

98 The code of conduct referred to in clause 84 shall be supplemental to the provisions relating to the conduct of charity trustees contained in this constitution and the duties imposed on charity trustees under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; and all relevant provisions of this constitution shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with the provisions of the code of conduct in force from time to time

DECISION-MAKING BY THE CHARITY TRUSTEES

Notice of board meetings

- 99 Any charity trustee may call a meeting of the board or ask the secretary to call a meeting of the board.
- 100 At least 14 days' notice must be given of each board meeting, unless (in the opinion of the person calling the meeting) there is a degree of urgency which makes that inappropriate.

Procedure at board meetings

- 101 No valid decisions can be taken at a board meeting unless a quorum is present; the quorum for board meetings is 4 charity trustees, present in person.
- 102 If at any time the number of charity trustees in office falls below the number stated as the quorum in clause 88, the remaining charity trustee(s) will have power to fill the vacancies or call a members' meeting - but will not be able to take any other valid decisions.
- 103 The chair of the organisation should act as chairperson of each board meeting.
- 104 If the chair is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to start (or is not willing to act as chairperson), the charity trustees present at the meeting must elect (from among themselves) the person who will act as chairperson of that meeting.
- 105 Every charity trustee has one vote, which must be given personally.
- 106 All decisions at board meetings will be made by majority vote.
- 107 If there is an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting will be entitled to a second (casting) vote.
- 108 The board may, at its discretion, allow any person to attend and speak at a board meeting notwithstanding that they are not a charity trustee - but on the basis that they must not participate in decision-making.
- 109 A charity trustee must not vote at a board meeting (or at a meeting of a sub-committee) on any resolution which relates to a matter in which they have a personal interest or duty which conflicts (or may conflict) with the interests of the organisation; they must withdraw from the meeting while an item of that nature is being dealt with.
- 110 For the purposes of clause 96: -
- a. an interest held by an individual who is "connected" with the charity trustee under section 70(2) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (husband/wife, partner, child, parent, brother/sister etc) shall be deemed to be held by that charity trustee;

- b. a charity trustee will be deemed to have a personal interest in relation to a particular matter if a body in relation to which they are an employee, director, member of the management committee, officer or elected representative has an interest in that matter.

Minutes

- 111 The board must ensure that proper minutes are kept in relation to all board meetings and meetings of sub-committees.
- 112 The minutes to be kept under clause 98 must include the names of those present; and (so far as possible) should be signed by the chairperson of the meeting.
- 113 [The board shall (subject to clause 101) make available copies of the minutes referred to in clause 98 to any member of the public requesting them.]
- 114 [The board may exclude from any copy minutes made available to a member of the public under clause 100 any material which the board considers ought properly to be kept confidential - on the grounds that allowing access to such material could cause significant prejudice to the interests of the organisation or on the basis that the material contains reference to employee or other matters which it would be inappropriate to divulge.]

ADMINISTRATION

Delegation to sub-committees

- 115 The board may delegate any of their powers to sub-committees; a sub-committee must include at least one charity trustee, but other members of a sub-committee need not be charity trustees.
- 116 The board may also delegate to the chair of the organisation (or the holder of any other post) such of their powers as they may consider appropriate.
- 117 When delegating powers under clause 102 or Error! Reference source not found.3, the board must set out appropriate conditions (which must include an obligation to report regularly to the board).
- 118 Any delegation of powers under clause 102 or 103 may be revoked or altered by the board at any time.
- 119 The rules of procedure for each sub-committee, and the provisions relating to membership of each sub-committee, shall be set by the board.

Operation of accounts

- 120 Subject to clause 108, the signatures of two out of three signatories appointed by the board will be required in relation to all operations (other than the lodging of funds) on the bank and building society accounts held by the organisation; at least one out of the two signatures must be the signature of a charity trustee.
- 121 Where the organisation uses electronic facilities for the operation of any bank or building society account, the authorisations required for operations on that account must be consistent with the approach reflected in clause Error! Reference source not found.7.

Accounting records and annual accounts

- 122 The board must ensure that proper accounting records are kept, in accordance with all applicable statutory requirements.
- 123 The board must prepare annual accounts, complying with all relevant statutory requirements; if an audit is required under any statutory provisions (or if the board consider that an audit would be appropriate for some other reason), the board should ensure that an audit of the accounts is carried out by a qualified person.

MISCELLANEOUS

Winding-up (Dissolution)

- 124 If the organisation is to be wound up or dissolved, the winding-up or dissolution process will be carried out in accordance with the procedures set out under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.
- 125 Any surplus assets available to the organisation immediately preceding its winding up or dissolution must be used for purposes which are the same as - or which closely resemble - the purposes of the organisation as set out in this constitution.

Alterations to the constitution

- 126 This constitution may (subject to clause 114) be altered by resolution of the members passed at a members' meeting (subject to achieving the two thirds majority referred to in clause 47) or by way of a written resolution of the members.
